*A student should drop or withdraw from a course as soon as the determination is made that he or she will not be completing the course. This option carries the potential for grade and tuition penalty and may impact financial aid status. The following link is an outline of the policy for grades and tuition changes. All students are responsible for following the policies and procedures in the Academic Catalogue. <http://registrar.king.edu> Section 2.05.27

Classes are to be excused on the scheduled breaks above for ALL STUDENTS including online classes. All modules that fall within the scheduled seven day break have an additional week built in so that all students can observe the scheduled break.

No classes and exams will be given or due on Reading Day. Final examinations are held at the end of each course. Instructors are encouraged not to give major exams in the seven days prior to Reading Day, and ABSOLUTELY NO comprehensive exams should be given during this time.

Classes are to be excused on Memorial Day but online assignments may be assigned.
